

To all Asian and Oceanian Countries,

International Bocce Confederation (CBI) decided to promote Raffa specialty of Bocce Sports in Asia and Oceania. Besides as the World Raffa Championships will be played with continental quotas, it's been a necessity to start continental championships. Therefore, we would like to invite all the Asian-Oceanian Countries to participate in the First Asian & Oceanian Bocce Championship (in Raffa specialty) to be held in New Delhi, India from the 1st to the 4th of December, 2018. The championship will be played in 5 disciplines; single men, single women, double men, double women, and mixed double.

Bocce Association (India) is going to host the official delegations of each country composed of 6 persons free of charge for 5 nights in double/triple rooms in at least 3 stars hotels or well furnished apartments. All the expenses for the meals starting from arrival day to departure day's breakfast will also be covered by BAI. The delegations will be transferred from International Indira Gandhi Airport to the hotel by BAI. For extra persons and extra nights 40 Euros in double room (and 50 Euros in single room) per day will be charged.

CBI (International Bocce Federation) is going to organize an International Referee Seminar from 29th November to 2nd December of 2018. The seminar will be open for all candidates from all over the world who have average English and/or Italian language abilities. The candidates will be tested after the second day of the championship and successful candidates will be certified by CBI as international referees. Therefore the participants of the seminar are required to stay in New Delhi until the 2nd of December. Participants are required to pay to CBI 80 Euros for the seminar and 40 Euros per day for their stay and meals in double room (For single room 50 Euros per day extra cost will be charged).

On the 2nd of December 2018, The Foundation Assembly of Asian & Oceanian Bocce Confederation (AOBC) will be organized. All the countries are invited to participate to the assembly with their presidents or head delegations.

Please REPLY the Intention Form below until the 19th of October 2018 and send to info@cbi-prv.org and boccia.association.india@gmail.com;
